

Association Elects New Officers, Hears Ministry Reports, and Plans for New Year at Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the East Central Baptist Association was held September 21, 2017 at Faith Christian Fellowship in Anderson IN. Eighteen messengers, representing 7 member churches were seated to conduct the annual business of the Association. Attendees heard reports from the treasurer, moderator, State Convention of Baptists in Indiana Director, International Missions Board, Church Planting Team, Church Ministry Team, Church Health Team, Trustees, Baptist Collegiate Ministry, and Ad Hoc Committee.

The following officers were re-elected for the 2017-18 year: James Marlow, Moderator; Ron Ross, Vice Moderator; Pat Storm, Assistant Clerk and Assistant Treasurer; and Jon Nichols, Treasurer. With the sale of the ECBA Office/BCM House, new trustees were not added to the 4 who were currently serving. They include: Zach Beachy, Chair; Amos Rodgers, Joe Fox, and Don Sweigart. The nominating committee had been unable to find anyone willing to serve as Associational Clerk and no nominations were made from the floor, so that position remains vacant.

Under other new business, the Association voted to accept the Ad Hoc Committee's recommendation to begin publishing ECBA's newsletter, The Communicator, on a monthly basis beginning in 2018 and to adjust the Administrative Assistant's salary to accommodate this change. This was included in the 2018 budget that was presented and accepted. The Association also accepted the proposed meeting dates for 2017-18 and the resolutions that were presented by the arrangements and resolutions committee.

Additionally, the Association voted to change our November meeting objective. Currently, a January through December calendar is presented at that meeting. That will be changed to present a September through August calendar at the Annual meeting then plan a time of thanksgiving, worship, and praise along with a fellowship meal for the November meeting.

The Association also accepted the Ad Hoc Committee's recommendation to make a constitutional change that would enable any mission church which has constituted and wishes

New Day Baptist Church—Alexandria Dedicates New Sanctuary

New Day Baptist Church in Alexandria held a dedication service for their newly constructed sanctuary on Sunday, December 3. The new sanctuary can accommodate 325. It took 5 months and over 600 volunteers (many from Mississippi Nail Benders) to build it. 175 were in attendance for the dedication service that included a baptism. A celebration fellowship meal was held following the service.

The EDUCATION COORDINATOR shares...

It is not too late for churches to calendar a Winter or January Bible Study. The SBC date is January 7-14, 2018 and focuses on a study on the New Testament letter known as First Peter. Frank Bruce has provided a study companion entitled, Living as Strangers in a Secular World, a very fitting title for a very timely study. The outline in Bruce's book accurately uses the twenty-three paragraph divisions of the letter.

Pastor, you are encouraged to exegete this letter and present its content over an extended period of time, if possible. If you can schedule this study for three to five weeknights, your people will be fed with excellent substance and you will be blessed in the process of preparation and presentation. If, however, you wish to have such a study, but realize the necessary preparation time is impossible, feel free to contact the ECBA Education Coordinator; he would enjoy such a ministry opportunity in your church. He can be reached at roro062@att.net or by phone at 765-216-1143.

to become a member of ECBA to do so at any calendared business meeting, rather than having to wait until the Annual Meeting.

Regarding the Ad Hoc Committee's recommendation to secure a modified Director of Missions or a Pastor-to-Pastor position, a motion was made and accepted for the moderator to appoint a new Ad Hoc Committee who would address in more detail a possible action plan, showing a brief job description and a financial plan for funding. This would be presented at the Semi-Annual Meeting in March with plans to vote on the defined plan at the 2018 Annual Meeting.

The credentials committee made a recommendation to approve the admittance of Remedy City Church as a participating member of ECBA. The recommendation was unanimously accepted.

The Annual Meeting was adjourned and followed with a time of worship through music and preaching of the Word. Host pastor, Dana Jones, referenced Ecclesiastes 3 and Matthew 24 and spoke on "What Time Is It?"

ECBA Quarterly Meeting Approves 2017-18 Calendar and Considers Purchasing Inflatables

The first Quarterly Meeting for the 2017-18 year was held on Thursday, November 9th, 2017, at North Delaware Baptist Church in Muncie. Eleven messengers from four member churches were present to conduct business.

Moderator James Marlow (North Delaware) led the business meeting. Reports were presented. The ECBA continues to be in a fiscally stable condition and no longer shows a monthly financial loss since the sale of the ECBA Office/BCM House.

Highlights of the Church Ministry Team included:

Education: The Educational Coordinator, Ron Ross (North Delaware), has provided emailed information on significant denominational and church history events. Upcoming is the Winter Bible Study (see article above). Ron encouraged our churches to participate in this emphasis along with other denominational emphases; such as, Baptist Doctrine Week, Social Issue Sunday, Racial Reconciliation Sunday, Christian Home Week, and Personal Evangelism Commitment Sunday.

International Women's Ministry: Louise Welty (North Delaware), Ministry Coordinator, shared that they have 12 International women and 7 American women enrolled for the semester. She encouraged the churches to join her for their Thanksgiving meal on Saturday, November 18th, at the Schiedler Complex Office.

Disaster Relief: Joe Fox (Old Town Hill), Team Coordinator, share that 64 volunteers had served 99 families through this ministry. They have built 11 ramps, assessed 122 homes and worked on 99. They have also competed 18 trainings and used the shower units 6 times. They have had 62 ministry contacts, 31 chaplaincy contacts, and 7 gospel presentations.

Highlights from the Church Health Team report included:

Children/VBS: Coordinator, Brenda Brooks (Redeemer), will be attending the VBS Training at Ridgecrest, January 6-9, 2018.

International Women's Ministry Shares an American Thanksgiving

Again this year, the International Women's Ministry hosted a American Thanksgiving meal. Held on Saturday, November 18th at 7:00 p.m. at the Schedler complex office, the event featured traditional Thanksgiving fare. International Women's Ministry Coordinator, Louise Welty (North Delaware Baptist Church), shared that she used to carve the turkeys and put them into pans to serve but the ladies said they wanted to see the baked turkey, like in traditional pictures, so she began baking a small turkey to leave whole along with pans of sliced turkey to serve.

Many of the women attend with their family members. It is a wonderful opportunity to share the love of Christ to these visitors to our country. Louise encourages anyone in our ECBA churches to attend and help with this ministry.

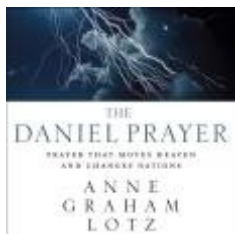

International Women's Ministry Coordinator, Louise Welty, coordinates the annual Thanksgiving dinner.

Traditional Thanksgiving fare is served.

Many of the women bring their families with them.

The ECBA Prayer Ministry Team gave away a free "The Daniel Prayer" prayer bundle in a drawing from all who registered on the ECBA Facebook Page. Pat Storm (Redeemer) won the bundle. The team is now encouraging ECBA Churches to fast and pray for God's direction in the new year. Disaster Relief Volunteers Minister to Flood Victims Plus Build Wheelchair Ramps

The Disaster Relief Team has been busy doing mud-outs in homes affected by flooding in the Bowell, IN area. They have also been doing tear-outs in Rome City, IN. These have been a great opportunity to help people and share the gospel.

The first time out of her house in 1 1/2 years, thanks to the wheelchair ramp built by DR

When they are not busy with DR assignments, the team has also taken the opportunity to help people in the East Central Indiana area by building wheelchair ramps. On September 19, nineteen volunteers showed up to install a wheelchair ramp at a home in Anderson. The woman who lived there had not been out of her home since moving in 1 1/2 years ago. The team was also able to share Christ with her and plan to follow-up plus provide further help later.

Here are some recent statistics of this ministry:

Glimpses of the ECBA Christmas Party

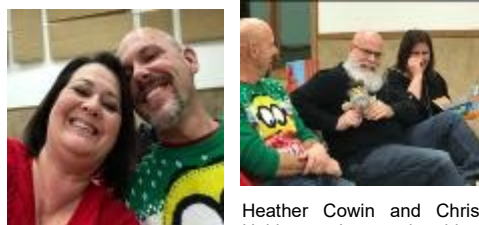

The ECBA Christmas Party, held on December 3rd, 2017 at 6:30 p.m. at Redeemer Baptist Church in Anderson, began with a dinner of lasagna, chicken tetrazzini, salad, California vegetables and bread sticks and was topped off with a variety of desserts, including coconut cake, cheesecake, and tarts. A time of sharing, prayer, and then a fun White Elephant gift exchange, all surrounded with good fellowship and laughter, concluded the event. Here are a few pictures from the evening.

Nancy and Harrison Williams (New Day - Alex), Elaine and Ron Ross (North Delaware), Jim and Jama Marlow (North Delaware) and Mae Dean (Redeemer) watch to see if the next person will steal a gift or select a new one.

Brad and Lisa Storm (Redeemer) and Kathy and Steve Grant (Gaston) listen as Chris Hubler (New Day) shares a story.

Tami and Chris Hubler (New Day).

Heather Cowin and Chris Hubler can't stop laughing when Jeremy Cowin (Portland) gets a Duck Dynasty doll in his gift.

Phil and Pat Storm (Redeemer) and Deneia and Dale Trego (New Day - Muncie) watch and wait as gifts are selected.

On April 14th, 2018, she will help with VBS training at Highland Lakes Baptist Camp. ECBA will be hosting an Associational VBS training on May 5th from 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. at Redeemer Baptist Church.

Prayer Ministry: Coordinator, Tami Hubler (New Day), was unable to attend the meeting but Team Leader, Mary Fullhart (Old Town Hill), shared that the ECBA Prayer Ministry Team had announced a giveaway opportunity for our churches or small groups. One "The Daniel Prayer" prayer bundle will be given away in a drawing from all who register on the ECBA Facebook Page.

WMU/Women's Ministry: Mary Fullhart, Coordinator, announced that the ECBA Ladies Retreat has been scheduled for Saturday, April 28th, 2018 from 10:00 a.m. –

4:00 p.m. at Old Town Hill Baptist Church in Muncie. Christian Gospel Recording Artist, Cheri Taylor will be speaking on the theme "Don't Waste Your Life."

Business included the approval of the 2018 ECBA Calendar (See pages 6-7 for a copy of the calendar) and a motion to have Pat Storm (Redeemer) investigate the interest level of the churches, costs involved to purchase, and the cost of maintaining giant inflatables, such as a bounce house, for the churches to use. She is to bring a report on this at the Semi-Annual Meeting.

According to the motion passed at the Annual Meeting, the moderator was to name a new Ad Hoc Committee who would be commissioned to come up with a more detailed possible action plan for ECBA to secure a modified Director of Missions/Pastor to Pastor position plus develop a brief job description and a financial plan to fund the position. Jim said he has had difficulty finding people who were willing to serve and currently has only 1 who has agreed to be on this committee. He asked for everyone to pray about this.

Pat Storm also noted that there were a few errors in the 2017 Book of Reports. Most were misidentification of messengers, Ron Ross and Michael Calvert's, (both from North Delaware) church membership. There were also errors in Dana Jones (Faith Christian), Tim Overton (Kingston), and Bruce Reynold's (Old Town Hill) phone numbers. Anyone needing these corrections can contact Pat.

Following the business portion of the meeting, Jeff Connor (Old Town Hill), accompanied by Dee Filler (Old Town Hill) on the piano, led in singing. James Marlow presented a message on Revelation 12:7-12 then closed the evening in prayer. North Delaware hosted a time of fellowship, serving cookies and coffee following the meeting.

10 Easy Ways to Create a Safer Church This Sunday

A marital disagreement turns violent prior to a pastoral counseling session. A distraught intruder walks into the church office, making demands. A man carrying a semi-automatic weapon enters the sanctuary during a Sunday morning service. Do you still think it can't happen to your church? What if it does? Are you ready?

What's stopping your church from developing a safety and security mindset? Matt Parmelee, risk strategy specialist for Brotherhood Mutual, says that denial or fear often prevents churches from creating a safety and security program. "I hear, 'we know everyone in the community' or 'our church is in a good part of town.' I tell churches, to consider the possibility of not if, but when."

Create a safer church. Today.

Starting a safety and security program at your church doesn't have to be complicated or costly—it's important to do what you can. "Many churches don't know where to start, or think that a huge budget is necessary to develop a team," Parmelee says. "There are many things churches can do right now that are low cost or no cost."

Is your leadership motivated to make changes today? It's possible to make quick, meaningful changes. Jump-start your plan with these 10, do-it-today action steps:

1. Assign roles. In an emergency, determine who will call 911, who will talk to authorities, and who will talk to the media. Assign backups for each role.

2. Identify trained professionals within the membership. Look for trained medical professionals, current or former law enforcement officers, and members with military or security backgrounds.

3. Invest in two-way radios. Two-way radios eliminate spotty cell service and scrambling to locate a list of internal phone numbers. Ushers, day care workers, and office staff equipped with two-way radios can relay information quickly throughout your building or campus.

4. Create a single entrance into the church. Assign an usher or team member to lock doors once your service starts. Any unlocked doors should be actively monitored. All other entrances should be inaccessible from the outside of your church. Ensure that the exit doors remain unlocked from the inside.

5. Monitor doors and lots. During services, assign a volunteer to monitor an unlocked door or two volunteers for the parking lot. Equip your volunteers with two-way radios.

6. Move your pulpit. If your pulpit is in the middle of the stage or platform, consider relocating it to the side. By doing this, pastors and other groups facing the congregation can be closer to an exit or side room. Position people at the front of the congregation who can observe comings and goings during the service.

7. Draw attention to the exits. This may seem obvious, but in an emergency, it's easy to forget about side or back exits. Start your message this weekend by pointing out all exits to your congregants.

8. Ask, "what if it happened here?" Schedule a leadership or staff meeting to spur discussion. Brotherhood Mutual offers several free resources to help guide you through difficult topics.

9. Obtain a list of area crimes. Your local police department can provide a list of crimes that have happened near your address.

10. Knowing is half the battle.

Invite local law enforcement, a fire marshal, ambulance service, or your insurance agent to your campus to identify trouble spots. They'll help you better understand potential risks and offer solutions to help you create a safer church environment.

You've come this far...are you willing to do more?

Capitalize on your momentum. By working these additional five steps, your church can be ready to respond to just about any emergency:

- Overcome objections and fear. Engage leadership in deeper discussions.
- Take a closer look at the unique aspects of your ministry and buildings.
- Ask, "what does success look like?" Map a strategy to bring your vision to life.
- Recruit, screen, and train a safety and security team that's ministry-minded and calm; formalize the role of each team member.

Create a plan that addresses all relevant emergencies.

If that sounds daunting, know that help is available. Brotherhood Mutual offers free resources that approach safety and security from a ministry point-of-view. You can access free articles, checklists, publications, webinars, and videos here.

Your staff and church members can develop a safety and security mindset. The first steps are always the hardest. By overcoming objections and making small changes, you can help your congregation rise above their denial and fear, and create a safer place to worship for them and others.
